Brinton Eaton Joins Mariner Wealth Advisors

Nationally ranked by Barron's as a top independent wealth advisor, Mariner adds 13 wealth management professionals and continues to expand its national footprint

LEAWOOD, Kan. – December 5, 2012 – Mariner Wealth Advisors, the wealth management firm led by chief executive officer Martin C. Bicknell – ranked nationally as a Top Ten Independent Financial Advisor by Barron's – today announced that it is expanding its wealth advisory team by adding Brinton Eaton, located in Madison, New Jersey.*

Brinton Eaton's team of 18 associates, including 13 advisors and analysts, has extensive experience designing custom wealth planning solutions for clients. The Brinton Eaton teams focus on providing integrated, personalized advice and support through highly skilled investment, risk management, and financial planning professionals.

"I am thrilled with the opportunity this new relationship offers our firm," said Robert DiQuollo, CPA, CFP®, chief executive officer and founder of Brinton Eaton. "More importantly, I am looking forward to the opportunities this new relationship offers our clients. Mariner will provide us with additional support and resources so our advisors will have the freedom to devote even more time to managing client relationships. This will allow them to create solutions that are even more focused on meeting each client's individual needs."

Founded with a mission of helping individuals and families achieve financial peace of mind, Mariner Wealth Advisors provides financial advice that is based purely on the needs and interests of its clients. The firm's performance has resulted in a growing base of clients who desire unbiased advice and proven strategies that deliver results.

According to Bicknell, "I believe we have found another exceptional partner in Brinton Eaton. Anyone who knows me has heard me say it countless times, but the most important thing in partnering with another firm is ensuring the firms share complementary cultures. I am confident that in Brinton Eaton we have found a partner with a similar client-focused culture that will allow us to better serve our shared clients – now and long into the future."
